Gentlemen I ask again """"""have we become soooo stupid """""""" Have we forgotten what it takes to be a great nation of achievers. From time to time you hear or read completly stupid coments. Like three weeks ago I was reading our Todays News. On the front page the front page Was a picture of an American ground forces soldier. With full details on all the equipment that he carries while in combat with arrows showing where each of these article are on their bodies. I read this in total disbelief over how little we care for our military forces safety that are putting their lives on the line for us to maintain the (what we call) the right to freedom.
I built a company from my garage to a 255man operation based on an idea. I can't even imagine how angered I would have been if some jerk would have come to me and said, " You are way too successful and have achieved way too much " therefore we are going to force you to give up your monopoly because we have a group of stupid people over hear that need your business to slow down.
Somebody forgot the working for three days without sleep, and working through Christmas, and worrying where the next dollar was coming from to be able to not get bad credit, etc., etc. Why have we as a nation become so stupid???????
In case anybody hasn't noticed. The superlatives (achievers) are the ones that create wealth and prosperity for our country, feed them don't stifle their efforts.
